

J M Smith Corporation Ranked Third Largest Privately Held Company by South Carolina Chamber of Commerce

Smith Drug Company of Spartanburg, South Carolina., reports that its parent company, J M Smith Corporation, has once again been named South Carolina's third largest privately held company by the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce. The ranking appears in the 29th edition of the Grant Thornton South Carolina 100™.

The Grant Thornton South Carolina 100 ranks the participating companies on five distinct traits: innovation, expansion, talent, culture and agility. Participation is voluntary, and companies are chosen based upon their net revenues for their most recently completed fiscal year. To qualify, companies must be privately held, headquartered in South Carolina and cannot be a subsidiary of another company. Financial institutions, insurance companies, real estate and other brokerages, healthcare organizations and companies primarily engaged in retail are not eligible for the South Carolina 100 listing.

Launched in 1944 from a regional chain of pharmacies, J M Smith Corporation has grown from a regional pharmacy wholesaler to a technology powerhouse comprised of four divisions and two subsidiaries — Smith Drug Company, QS/1, RxMedic, Norgenix Pharmaceuticals, Smith Premier Services and Integral Solutions Group, all of which serve the pharmacy industry.
